ARTS & LEARNING CONSERVATORY VISION & CULTURE
The best and brightest always have choices in the Performing Arts Industry. We exist to make high quality arts, equitable and accessible to all children, regardless of socioeconomic status.

The Arts & Learning Conservatory is a highly awarded, leading after-school arts provider in Orange County. Our high-quality arts programs are accessible to all children regardless of income or background as our goal is to set students up for success in life artistically, academically, and socially. Founded in 2004, the Arts & Learning Conservatory (ALC) reaches nearly 1,500 children annually across numerous campuses throughout Southern California. Students confidently explore the arts within a family-feel environment. We purposefully make each program meaningful, challenging, and impactful.

We want you to view your time with the Arts & Learning Conservatory as an investment in your future that includes growth along the way. The longer you stay with Arts & Learning Conservatory the wider the breath of opportunities and experiences you will gain and the greater impact you will make on the lives of our youth. We know that our overall success is a combined effort. If you are looking for an opportunity to express and explore your passion for the performing arts in a supportive and inspiring atmosphere, read on!

SUMMARY
We are looking for Musical Theatre instructors to teach before/after school classes throughout Orange County and or San Bernadino County, at elementary or middle schools. The ideal Musical Theatre instructor will possess the ability to work with youth, directing students in acting, singing, and choreography while helping instill a love of theatre, an excitement for performance, and a willingness to collaborate. He/she must possess excellent communication and organizational skills, must be self-motivated, energetic, efficient, and creative. Prior experience working with groups of children is required. Multiple positions open for directors, vocal directors, choreographers, and studio teachers.

Classes are twice a week with multiple schools and classes run from Sep/Oct-May/June. There are at least 2 performances.

EDUCATION & DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS
We are looking for music teachers that are fun, engaging, and can provide a positive and comfortable learning environment.

- College level training preferred in musical theatre, will consider equivalent training and experience. Degree preferred, but not mandatory.
- Knowledge of musical theatre, dance, and vocal training.
- 1 year of experience teaching children in the theatre arts.
- Commanding presence in the classroom, along with strong classroom management.
- Excellent organizational skills
- Arrives on time
- High energy and enthusiasm.
- Bimonthly check in with parents through email on class updates and breakdowns.
• Live-scan and background check. CPR, Sexual Harassment, Bullying training. (Can be done through us)

PAY
Commensurate with experience, starting at $35/hr. To apply, please submit resume to Operations Manager: Antoinette Catalla, antoinettec@artsandlearning.org