

Accelerating Nonprofit Success

COURT REFERRAL PROGRAM (CRP)

Is your agency in need of additional helping hands?

The Court Referral Program can assist with additional resources to help fulfill your mission.

For the past 50 years, the Court Referral Program (CRP) has been a trusted partner for nonprofit organizations. We provide courts, probation departments, and judicial officers with a viable alternative—community service as an option instead of fines and/or incarceration for misdemeanor offenders in Orange County.

ABOUT THE COURT REFERRAL PROGRAM (CRP)

OneOC's CRP, established in 1973, boasts a dedicated team with vast experience in comprehensive screenings. We match individuals with nonprofit organizations, ensuring a seamless fit for both parties. Our experienced staff monitors each individual's service journey from beginning to end.

WHY CHOOSE ONEOC FOR YOUR SERVICE?

Expand Resources with More Hands-on Deck. Nonprofit organizations partnering with OneOC CRP gain access to an expanded pool of human resources at no cost. Our program connects organizations with individuals ready to contribute their time and skills, enhancing your ability to fulfill your mission.

Diverse Skills and Experiences. Individuals in our program bring a range of skills and experiences to your organization, providing fresh perspectives and innovative ideas. Embrace the diversity of skills that our participants offer, and watch your organization thrive with new energy and creativity.

Adaptive to Your Organization's Needs. The Court Referral Program is designed to be flexible, adapting to the unique needs of each nonprofit organization. We understand that every organization is different, and our program is tailored to ensure a harmonious partnership that benefits both parties involved.

Additional Community Service Hours. By engaging with the Court Referral Program, your nonprofit organization opens the door to additional community service hours. This not only benefits your organization but also contributes to the greater good of the community.
